WASHINGTON, DC (December 10, 2012) – The US Business Leadership Network (USBLN[®]) is pleased to announce the continuation of their partnership with DiversityInc. For several years, the USBLN[®] has worked closely in collaboration with DiversityInc to raise awareness of the imperative to create culturally competent workplaces, marketplaces and supply chains in the business diversity community. This promotional partnership provides an effective platform to showcase the USBLN[®]'s collective efforts in DiversityInc Magazine and on www.diversityinc.com while enhancing DiversityInc's visibility in the disability community.

“We share a lot in common. The USBLN[®]'s mission is driven by the needs of business, working closely with other businesses, to create disability inclusive cultures that increase their talent pools, attract and retain customers and enhance entrepreneurship and economic opportunities for people with disabilities. From its beginnings 13 years ago, DiversityInc has espoused the best practices in diversity management derived from leading companies that have achieved improved business results through their diversity programs. We both believe our missions are unstoppable if they drive positive results,” shared Jill Houghton, Executive Director, USBLN[®].
