WASHINGTON, DC (June 4, 2013) – The US Business Leadership Network[®] (USBLN[®]) in partnership with the Boston University Center for Psychiatric Rehabilitation and the Job Accommodation Network (JAN) is pleased to offer its members and allies a cost-free webinar on this critical topic on Thursday, June 20, 2013 from 2:00-3:00 p.m. EST.

This webinar will present a summary of quantitative and qualitative research studies as well as lessons learned from several decades of technical assistance by two national centers (Boston University and the Job Accommodation Network.) Presenters will discuss promising practices revealed in the studies and emerging workplace trends.

You will also hear about a recent initiative at Boston University on Creating an Inclusive Workplace. This program addresses positive approaches to reducing or eliminating discrimination and stigma at work.

Presenters:

- Joan Rapp, Coordinator Continuing Education, Boston University, Center for Psychiatric Rehabilitation
- Melanie Whetzel, Senior Consultant, Cognitive /Neurological Team, Job Accommodation Network

Attendees are asked to register by June 18, 2013.
